By Suzanne McNeill featuring Pat Ferguson (pg. 14-15)

$18.99

The freedom and joy that come with continuous line tangles along with the focus of working with repetitive patterns, to stitch "made by hand" free motion quilted pieces. Ideas for one-of-a-kind wall hangings, purses, tea towels and more will spark your creativity!

"Zentangle 6"

By Suzanne McNeill

$8.99

A sequel to Zentangle Basics, 2,3,4 and 5 with 40 new tangles! Dozens of fabulous ideas for using stencils or templates (what quilter doesn't have stencils?) and making eye catching cards.

"Zenspirations"

By Joanne Fink

$16.99

Awesome ideas and illustrations for lettering, monograms, patterning, frames and borders to add to your tangle library. Also includes adding color with different techniques, pens and watercolor. A great resource for adding pizzazz to your tangles!

Pat's Pointer

I learn something new in each class that I teach- here is a great tip from a recent class:

In a recent Zen Quilting class for the Blackstone Valley Heritage Quilters, students were tracing their paper patterns onto pima cotton which was taped down to the table. Imagining that the fabric could be turned in the same manner as one turns a Zentangle tile, Marsha expressed a wish for a revolving cutting board. Her spoken wish came true as Deb pulled out hers! The revolving board made it easy to turn as she traced. Voila, problem solved! A great re-purposing of a tool.
Thanks Marsha and Deb!
